Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between 12:00 Wed 10 Jul 2019 and
23:59 Wed 10 Jul 2019

Heavy, and possibly thundery, showers may cause some travel disruption and flooding in places during Wednesday afternoon and evening.

What to expect

- Some flooding of a few homes and businesses likely, leading to some damage to buildings or structures
- Probably some damage to a few buildings and structures from lightning strikes
- There is a good chance driving conditions will be affected by spray, standing water and/or hail, leading to longer journey times by car and bus
- Some short term loss of power and other services is likely
- Delays to train services are possible

Further details

Heavy showers, some of them perhaps thundery, are likely to develop during Wednesday afternoon across parts of Northern Ireland. Whilst some areas will miss the heaviest showers, where they do develop, heavy downpours are possible. There is potential for 10-20 mm of rain in an hour and 20-30 mm in 2-3 hours. Showers will then fade away during the late evening.
